About The Village Project

What is The Village Project?

The Village Project (TVP) is an eVTOL aircraft leasing company and walkable town planner. We combine the world's best traditional urban planners with experts in eVTOL (Electric Vertical Takeoff and Landing) operations to turn unremarkable developments into extraordinary, walkable places.

What is an eVTOL?

An eVTOL is an Electric Vertical Takeoff and Landing aircraft — essentially an electric air taxi. These aircraft fly at speeds of up to 200 mph, turning long drives into short flights. This technology reduces the need for extensive car infrastructure, freeing up land for walkable, human-centered communities.

Where does TVP operate?

TVP is currently focused on the United States market. For specific project inquiries, please contact us through our website's contact form or email us at help@villageproject.co.
